Sangkhim Canaan School's mission is to provide Cambodian children with a holistic education focusing on intellectual, physical, social, moral, cultural and spiritual development grounded on Christian values. The school started five years ago initially using rented accommodation. Land was subsequently purchased and two excellent school blocks for both education and residential purposes have been constructed, with finance provided from Singapore.

At present there are over 300 children at the school and many of the students are subsidised. Shared Hope's input is to help some of the poorest children in the community to receive a top quality education. The focus of the school to embrace children from the poorest families in the community is highly commendable and we are contributing towards this.

The school was started by a mission worker from Korea, Han Sik Kim. The members of staff are all Cambodian and are delivering a high standard of education.

To have a school that is pursuing excellence in the land of Cambodia, with its chequered history, is like a shaft of light in the darkness.
